Owen Turville

Biography

Introduction Owen Turville is a very accomplished artist in many fields and enjoys the challenge of painting to commission. After art school he was selected by the legendary decorator, John Fowler, as his personal assistant from whom he acquired a most valuable training in all aspects of eighteenth century design and decoration.

Owen is a specialist in murals, trompe l'oeil, landscapes, flower painting, painting on silk and portraits. He has also been consulted on and undertaken many interior decoration schemes involving marbling and the application of subtle paint effects for the National Trust, interior decorators and private clients. His large-scale interior and exterior murals have included: landscape, jungle, ancient Egyptian, and architectural designs both in this country and in Mexico, South Africa and Italy.
